Programmed by Courtney Sheehan

Today's Filmmaker Zheng Wang

Today's Screening: "Moving Day"
by Zheng Wang
3 minute excerpt

After hearing that her apartment building is about to be sold, a longtime resident of Seattle's Capitol Hill/First Hill neighborhood decides to move out before she is forced to.

Filmmaker: Zheng Wang

Zheng Wang is an independent filmmaker and multi-disciplinary artist. By day he is a video producer at Committee for Children, a Seattle-based educational nonprofit. Zheng's documentary and narrative films have screened at film festivals around the world and won awards. He is also the founder and Artistic Director of the nonprofit organization Dare to Dance.

Programmer: Courtney Sheehan

Courtney Sheehan is the Program Director for Northwest Film Forum, located on Capitol Hill. She has curated film programs and produced events for theaters and festivals on three continents. On a year-long Watson Fellowship, Courtney investigated the organizational structures, community roles, and programming strategies of twenty film festivals and media centers in India, Spain, the Netherlands, Brazil, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Serbia and Macedonia. As a journalist, Courtney has covered film events ranging from the world's largest documentary festival (IDFA in Amsterdam) to South America's largest animation festival (Anima Mundi in Rio de Janeiro) and her publications include Bitch Magazine, Senses of Cinema, The Independent, and NECSUS: European Journal of Media Studies. She co-founded Cine Migratorio, a migration-themed film festival in Santander, Spain. Courtney first worked at Northwest Film Forum in 2009 as a programming and Children's Film Festival Seattle intern. She holds a degree in Visual Culture from Grinnell College.
